Dear

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of 19 October 1947 relative to the possibility of your reemployment by this agency.

You may file an application for reemployment with our personnel office at any time, after which further consideration will be given to your desire. Final action will depend on several factors including current availability of a suitable vacancy and a determination as to whether you will meet, in all respects, the extremely high standards we have set for all CIA employees.

Your continued interest in this agency is appreciated.

Very truly yours,

R. H. HILLENROETTER
